

Friuli Venezia Giulia

Lignano Sabbiadoro

Overlooking the Adriatic nestled between the Marano Lagoon and the open sea Lignano Sabbiadoro is one of Friuli Venezia Giulia's most beloved seaside destinations, featuring eight kilometers of golden beach, shady pine forests, water sports, and a lively seafront lined with venues, parks, and shops. Students will be accommodated at the Bella Italia EFA Village (or a similar facility).

Excursions

Two full-day excursions

by private coach with staff assistance:

- Venice: a day spent amidst the canals of this iconic city featuring St. Mark's Square and the Rialto Bridge and the nearby island of Murano, where master glassmakers have passed down the art of glassblowing for centuries.
- Trieste: discover a city of elegant Habsburg-era buildings, historic cafés, and a seafront overlooking the Adriatic; a visit to Miramare Castle with its white towers and seaside gardens is a must.

Two half-day excursions

by private coach with staff assistance:

- Grado: explore the island situated between the lagoon and the Adriatic Sea, combining south-facing golden beaches with a historic center of Venetian-style alleyways and the Basilica of Sant'Eufemia, home to ancient mosaics.
- Palmanova: an excursion to the star-shaped fortress city designed by the Venetians in 1593. A UNESCO World Heritage site, it preserves its original bastions, monumental gates, and the spectacular hexagonal Piazza Grande.
